

Elm - Easter Homework

Here are some suggested activities for the Easter holidays. There is also a folder containing colouring, crafts and other ideas to support families with home activities. These activities are only suggested and there is no pressure for families to complete any or all of them. I understand that many families will want to spend these two weeks together without homework or home learning.

Our Class Webpage: <https://www.totnesstjohnsprimary.org/home-learning-elm-class>

Our class webpage is now live! You can view our class page, home learning tasks and comment on the news feed. If you email a photo of your Easter creations I will share them on our class news feed!

Create an Easter Bonnet or Easter Basket

Create your own Easter Bonnet or Easter Basket. You could use cereal boxes, toilet rolls, paper, pens, paint, foil, and feathers...any materials you can find! Don't forget to look in your gardens for bright and colourful things to add!

Easter Baking Cook or bake an Easter treat with someone at home for your family

Decorate hard-boiled eggs Ask an adult to help you hard-boil eggs. Leave them to cool and then decorate. You can use pens, paint, stickers, paper, feathers, pom-poms googly eyes... Don't forget to email a photo!

Games Night! Organise a games night for your family where you play board games or card games. You could design your own board game to play with your family. You'll need to create a board (using paper or cardboard), make any pieces you need, find a dice if you need one, write out the rules for everyone to follow.

Listen to an audio book or share a new book with your family.

Audible has free audio books that you can download and listen to. Type Audible into google. Oxford Owl has free e-books that you can download and read for free. Type Oxford Owl into google.

audible

Oxford Owl for Home

Spelling Shed

Spelling, Shed, Times Table Rockstars, Accelerated Reader All of the interactive, online learning tools are still accessible during the Easter break. They will be updated with new learning for you to start, if you wish, or you can save it for next term.